

Rick Collins Toyota

Sioux City, Iowa

Project Type
Project Delivery System
Size
Client Reference

Auto Sales
Design/Build—Metal Building and Conventional 36,000 square feet

Description

Brown Construction worked closely with the Toyota Corporation, the dealership, and partnered with M+ Architects in the initial design stages to formulate a service-orientated building that was aesthetically appealing while remaining within the owner's budget. Brown Construction brought various value engineering items to the forefront early in the design process, to take advantage of cost saving ideas prior to bidding.